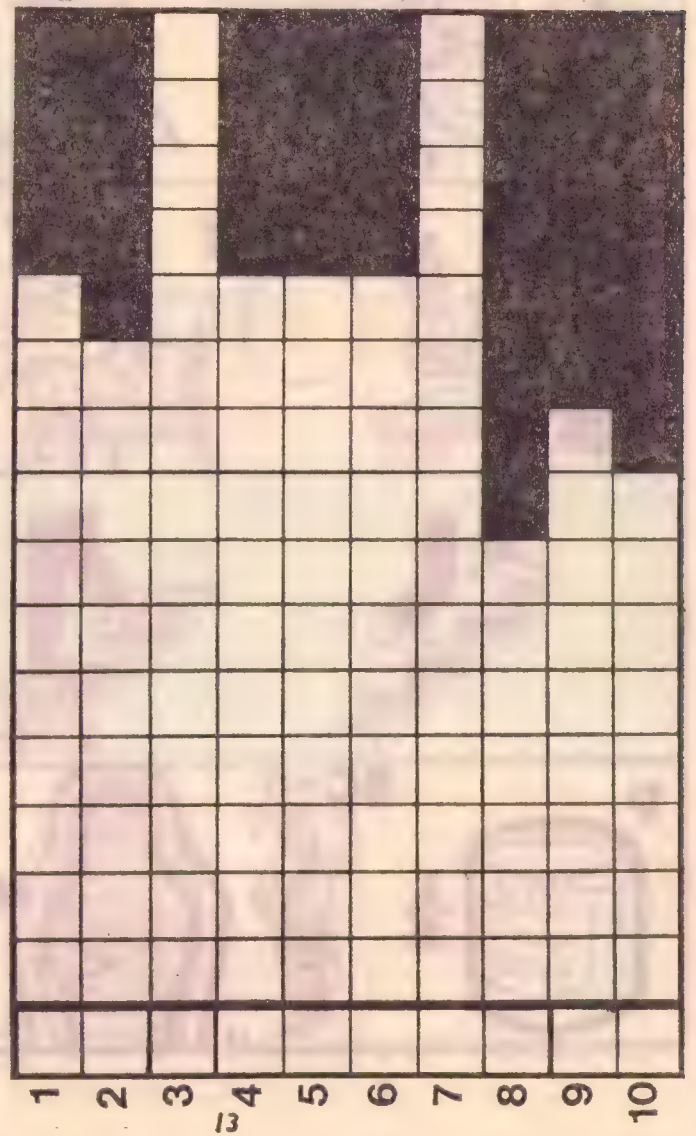
T.V. CROSSWORD

Study the clues and fill in the squares with the names of TV stars or programmes. If you've got the right answers you will make another word to do with entertainment in the bold squares on the left.

CLUES

1. This television detective is no 'sucker'? (5,7)
2. Top of the league for rugby (5,6)
3. Do you need to do this to live in harmony? (4,3,9)
4. Partners in laughter? (4,3,5)
5. First Lady of the Street? (6,6)
6. A competition — not a punch-up! (3,1,8)
7. Bargains galore for those with the right answers! (4,2,3,7)
8. A chief amongst cops (8)
9. The perfect way to travel? (2,3,5)
10. A popular time to find out what's going on. (4,2,3)



NAME THE PROGRAMMES

The sketches in each of these panels represent the title of a T.V. programme. For example, in panel 1 we have someone looking cross — and a couple of roads. Hence the title CROSSROADS. Now, can you do the others?

Letters

Dear Editor,

My hobby is fishing, and I have already won one contest. My father has won about 180 matches, and has a very big collection of cups and shields. His name has been in the paper many times.

MARK PAYNE, Olney.

Now you've got your name in a paper, too — WHOOPEE! . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

This is what I think of WHOOPEE!
When you are lonely, ill or bored,
Here is a comic you can easily afford,
Of course its worth every single penny,
Oh, besides the features which are so many,
People enjoy the fun of reading,
Editor and staff are really succeeding,
Ensure you get this comic every week!

STEPHEN HAYES, Four Oaks.

Words of wisdom indeed, ta very much . . . Editor.

Dear Ossie the Office Boy,

There have not been so many letters to you published in WHOOPEE! over the last month or so. Can you tell me why this is?

JOHN SWINTON, Wharfe Dale.

I asked ol' Thingy (the Editor) the same thing myself — woke him up 'specially to do so. Result is, I get two letters on the trot this week . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

My hobby is collecting cards. I've got football cards, horror cards, UFO cards, Captain Scarlet cards, and many others. In total they add up to over 2,000.

ANDREW WADE, Lightcliffe.

Lucky you! All I've got are playing cards — and only 51 of them! . . . Ossie.

Dear Editor,

My hobby is connected with buses, and nearly every weekend I visit my local bus station. I like taking photographs of buses, and I am trying to build up a complete collection.

MARTIN SQUIRES, Walkern.

Well, then, having your letter printed should prove just the ticket. It'll provide you with enough cash to buy a new film for your camera . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about my hobby, which is collecting keyrings. I started collecting keyrings two years ago whilst on holiday in Wales. I now have 243 keyrings from all over the world. Can anyone beat that?

N. SEMMENS, Coventry.

Phew! I've heard of a bunch of keys on a ring, but never a bunch of rings on a key . . . Can any reader beat 243? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am very keen on gymnastics, which I attend every Monday night. I have already passed my B.A.G.A. awards 4 and 3, and I'm now trying very hard for my award 2. Once, whilst running up to do a cartwheel, my gymnastic teacher was praising me, and just then I tripped over the mat and fell flat on my face. So much for my cartwheel.

JULIE SMITH, South Shields.

Good luck with your B.A.G.A. award 2, Julie . . . hope it doesn't require you doing any cartwheels . . . Editor.
